SHARE YOUR JOURNEY

The Lumary City-Bay Fun Run is full of so many stories as participants and charities embark on their journey in SA's greatest mass-participation event.

So what's your story? What's your motivation? Let us know and you could be lining up at the start line in a brand new pair of Asics shoes.

Just share your training pics, tell us about your charity and why it is important to you, pass on your running tips or even a healthy recipe suggestion.

At the end of August you'll go into the draw for a pair of Asics.

Start posting away to our Facebook page and share your pics on our Instagram page using the hashtag #lumarycitybay2021.

We can't wait to hear from you.
