BE INSPIRED BY OUR BEST AT ADELAIDE INVITATIONAL!

The Australian Summer Series returns to Adelaide in 2024 with the Chemist Warehouse Adelaide Invitational on February 10. Australia's best athletes head to SA to compete and earn World Athletics ranking points in an attempt to qualify for the Olympics & Paralympics!

Last year's edition enticed athletes from all over to come and compete on the newly laid track. The crowds were engaged and full of excitement with the high standard of athletics.

Our first two confirmed athletes are hometown heroes Aidan Murphy and Lakara Stallan.

Coming off his 2023 World Championships campaign Aidan is looking to start the Summer Series with a bang in the 200m. After a breakout year lowering the U/20 100m and 200m state records, Lakara is ready to return to the meet and perform her best. Australia's Olympic athletics hopefuls will receive an extra boost en route to Paris 2024, with the 2024 Chemist Warehouse Adelaide Invitational elevated to a World Athletics Continental Tour Bronze meet.

The exciting upgrade to the February 10 meet has been made possible with the backing of the City-Bay Fun Run, whose proceeds support the athletics community in South Australia.

RUN THE BRIDGE Hobart Feb 18th 2024

Take in all the iconic sites of Hobart, on foot. The Think Big Run The Bridge starts at Blundstone Arena, then heads along the Hobart Waterfront taking in Bellerive Quay, Kangaroo Bay, Tasman Bridge, Government House, Hobart Waterfront, Salamanca and Battery Point. Cross the glorious finish line, then turn around and take your pick of café, bar or restaurant, as you'll be right in the middle of the Hobart scene.

For the elite runner, the unique 'Battle of the Sexes' concept gives the elite women a headstart, being the difference between the course records. The first 'person' across the line regardless of gender takes home $8000, making it the richest 10km road race in Australia.

Choose from 10km, 5km or 1km events.
