YEARS OF FUN
RUN 1973 - 2024

Thank you!

For the first time in City-Bay history we have reached our goal of having 2,024 people already signed up in our first month of entries being open, making our goal of 50,000 participants a very real possibility! (If this is you, don't forget to use your vouchers before midnight tonight!)

And even though our super early bird deal is done, you can still get the regular early bird at almost the same value: $50 with over $100 worth of credit vouchers from our sponsors including a training program by RunAsOne to help you get started with just under 8 months to go!

Inspired by 50 marathons in 50 days

Speaking of 50, how inspiring is this...Tom Price, a man who started running during 2020, has just spent most of January running 50 marathons in 50 days to raise money & awareness for Neo-Natal Intensive Care Units and the lifesaving care their staff provide for premature babies and their families, a cause very close to his heart. Read more about his incredible journey on his Instagram page the_price_of_running.

Not all of us have to run 50 marathons in 50 days to bring attention to our cause! Celebrating our 50th running of City-Bay Fun Run makes this year the perfect high-profile platform for you to do your own fundraising. All you have to do is nominate a cause that's close to your heart and set up your page. Get started now and allow people to go on the full journey with you between today and September 15th!
