Gender Categories and Prize Eligibility Statement – City-Bay Fun Run

The City-Bay Fun Run is committed to promoting inclusivity, fairness, and gender equality in line with South Australian Government guidelines and community expectations.

To ensure clarity and consistency in the awarding of official prizes, prize money will be allocated based on gender categories aligned with participants' gender assigned at birth. This approach aligns with existing sporting classification standards for competition and ensures equitable comparison in performance-based results.

We welcome and respect all participants, including transgender and gender-diverse individuals, and continue to work towards creating a safe, inclusive environment for all. Participants are encouraged to select the category most appropriate for their identity and participation goals, noting that prize eligibility is based on biological sex at birth for the purposes of competitive fairness.
